Case No.:

Currently pending in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York.

DEFENDANTS,

STATE OF NEW YORK)
) ss.: COUNTY OF ERIE)

ROBERT J. DUBIN, ESQ., being duly sworn deposes and says:

1. I am an attorney and counselor at law admitted to practice in the State of New York and a partner in Dubin & Dubin, LLP (hereinafter "D&D").

2. D&D is represented by Goldberg Segalla LLP as concerns the motion to quash the subpoena duces tecum annexed hereto as Exhibit A (hereinafter "Subpoena").

The Subpoena was served on May 3, 2013. This Affidavit is submitted in support of the motion to quash.

3. The Subpoena is objectionable for a number of reasons as addressed herein and in the memorandum of law and other papers submitted in support of the motion.

4. While D&D is not a named defendant in the above litigation, First Resolution Investment Corporation (hereinafter "FRIC"), a longstanding and current collection client of D&D, is so named. FRIC has directed D&D not to waive any attorney-client privileges or confidences. Notably, the Subpoena seeks materials that are privileged and/or that D&D has a duty to keep confidential. Rule 1.6 of New York's Rules of Professional Conduct concerns "Confidentiality of Information," and provides as follows in relevant part:

(a) A lawyer shall not knowingly reveal confidential information, as defined in this Rule, . . . unless: (1) the client gives informed consent, as defined in Rule 1.0(j); (2) the disclosure is impliedly authorized to advance the best interests of the client and is either reasonable under the circumstances or customary in the professional community; or (3) the disclosure is permitted by paragraph (b). "Confidential information" consists of information gained during or relating to the representation of a client, whatever its source, that is (a) protected by the attorney-client privilege, (b) likely to be embarrassing or detrimental to the client if disclosed, or (c) information that the client has requested be kept confidential.

5. The Subpoena seeks documents "sent to any person other than FRIC" and "[a]ny document reflecting any communication with the putative debtor or any other person, except for communications made solely to FRIC." By definition this would encompass documents exchanged between counsel and/or liability insurers concerning this litigation, which would clearly be privileged. It would also encompass other communications that D&D has an ethical obligation to protect per Rule 1.6.

6. Among other concerns, FRIC has requested that D&D not disclose any names, addresses, social security numbers, account numbers, or other identifying information or materials regarding debtors in response to the subpoena. (A review of Exhibits 1 and 2 annexed to the Subpoena makes it appear that FRIC has also refused to disclose any such information.) The very act of responding to the Subpoena itself would violate the non-disclosure of client confidences.

7. Also problematic is that simply responding to the Subpoena could be construed to be a violation of various sections of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (15 USC 1692c(b) prohibits third party communication about a debt, and 15 USC 1692b(2) prohibits certain statements alleging that a debt is owed), which could result in a claim for damages by each and every debtor associated with the records sought by the Subpoena. Notably, the March 25, 2013, correspondence from Manuel H. Newburger, Esq., to Magistrate Judge Pohorelsky, annexed hereto as Exhibit B, alleges that counsel for the plaintiff has already engaged in a willful disregard of the Court's redaction rules concerning addresses and account numbers.

8. Compliance with the Subpoena would also be unduly burdensome to D&D. D&D is a small, solo practitioner firm engaged with representing creditors and collecting debts. Your deponent is the only active attorney in the firm. (Marvin T. Dubin, Esq., the predecessor firm's founder and your deponent's father, is essentially retired. While Marvin remains of counsel with the firm, he was never engaged with any regular or active practice on behalf of D&D.)

9. As an additional matter, it would be impossible for D&D to comply with the Subpoena in the two weeks required thereby for the production of documents. Further, complying with the Subpoena would be unduly burdensome and costly for D&D. Without the specific debtor's names for the accounts at issue in the Subpoena, it would be impossible to identify and review only the specific accounts sought in the Subpoena. To comply with the Subpoena, D&D would need to review over a thousand FRIC files. Your deponent estimates that it would take approximately 30 to 60 minutes per file, or 500 to a 1,000 hours of time, to obtain and review these files so as to comply with the Subpoena. Additional time would be necessary to create a privilege log and to identify attorney client communications and confidences.

10. Further, some of the materials sought are archived and/or stored on a computer hard-drive or other such electronic storage medium. Ensuring that any and all such electronically stored materials are located would take additional time and entail a significant expense as an outside computer expert would be necessary to conduct the search. There will also be significant cost to copy the records sought. All of this imposes an undue burden and cost on D&D.

11. This undue burden is all the more great given that most of the records sought can be obtained by the plaintiff directly. The first category of documents sought is "[a]ny documents you filed with any court." Counsel for the plaintiff can obtain any such records directly and without any involvement by D&D by simply searching PACER or other such services and/or requesting records from the clerk's office for any particular court.

12. The significant burden to D&D in complying with the Subpoena substantially outweighs any benefit to the plaintiff in obtaining the records. The records sought in the Subpoena are irrelevant to the claims of plaintiff, as D&D has not sued Ms. Mayorga. Consequently, D&D has no records that would be relevant to the allegations alleged in the Complaint.

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45 (c), (d), and (e) (Effective 12/1/07)(c) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The issuing court must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the issuing court for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the issuing court must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to travel more than 100 miles from where that person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person — except that, subject to Rule 45(c)(3)(B)(iii), the person may be commanded to attend a trial by traveling from any such place within the state where the trial is held;

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the issuing court may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information;

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party; or

(iii) a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(c)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(d) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information to the court under seal for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(e) Contempt. The issuing court may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena. A nonparty's failure to obey must be excused if the subpoena purports to require the nonparty to attend or produce at a place outside the limits of Rule 45(c)(3)(A)(ii).

Exhibit A

Definitions:

- In responding to this subpoena, please refer to and use the "Uniform Definitions in Discovery Requests" set forth in Eastern District of New York Local Civil Rule 26.3.
- The term "document" is defined to be synonymous in meaning and equal in scope to the usage of the term "documents or electronically stored information" in Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(a)(1)(A). A draft or non-identical copy is a separate document within the meaning of this term.
- The term "concerning" means relating to, referring to, describing, evidencing or constituting.
- The term "communication" means the transmittal of information (in the form of facts, ideas, inquiries or otherwise).

Time period for request: February 7, 2009 to present.

Scope of accounts: The scope of the accounts is as follows:

1. Where the current creditor/ debt buyer was First Resolution Investment Corporation ("FRIC"); and
2. Putative original creditor was:
 - a. Chase Bank USA, N.A., FIA Card Services, N.A., Discover Bank, or Citibank USA, NA and the charge-off date is more than 2 ½ years old; or
 - b. Providian and the charge-off date is more than 3 ½ years old.

Solely to assist you in identifying these account, and not for limiting the scope of this subpoena, see the two attached spreadsheets (Exhibit 1 and Exhibit 2) that FRIC has produced purporting to list the names of some of these individuals, the putative original creditors, and the putative charge-off dates.

Documents to be produced: For the above scope of accounts and the above time period, please produce documents you sent to any person other than FRIC. Without limitation this includes:

1. Any documents you filed with any court;
2. Any documents you sent to or received from the putative debtor;
3. Any documents sent to or received from a marshal;
4. Any information subpoenas, restraining notices, garnishments, or documents sent to the bank or employer of any putative debtor;
5. Any document reflecting an attempt by you to attempt to collect from the putative debtors; and
6. Any document reflecting any communication with the putative debtor or any other person, except for communications made solely to FRIC.

Re: Caroline Mayorga, on behalf of herself and all others similarly situated v. First Resolution Investment Corporation, et al.; Case No. 1:12-cv-00587-DLI-VVP in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York

Dear Judge Pohorelsky:

Pursuant to your instructions at the last hearing I write in address whether the Court should either: (1) allow redaction of putative class members' addresses from documents provided to Plaintiff's counsel; or (b) prohibit Plaintiff's counsel from using those documents to contact the putative class members. Ms. Moreno has asked me to inform the Court that the S&L Defendants join in this letter brief so as to save the Court time on these issues.

Before addressing the substance of these two issues it may make sense to disclose the actual numbers relating to the letters. FRIC does not send collection letters. FRMC, its affiliate collection agency does. FRMC has five form letters that reference the possibility of suit. For the one year prior to the filing of this suit FRMC states that 52 such letters were sent to New York residents. Going back three years to February 7, 2009 adds an additional 1,255, bringing the total of such letters for the three-year period to 1,257.¹ However, Ms. Mayorga was not one of those persons. Her letter was sent on January 28, 2009.² Thus, she is not a member of a letter-related class under either federal or state law, and she would not be typical of the persons to whom such letters were sent during the alleged class period.

¹ This number is slightly inflated. FRMC's records indicate that some of the letters were returned as undeliverable.

² Kareem Green's letter was sent on April 16, 2010. Oleg Tyulenev's letter was sent on August 21, 2009. Marvin Weinberg's letter was sent on April 21, 2010. Thus, none of the proposed additional plaintiffs will add anything to the proposed FDCPA class as their letters all predated February 7, 2011.

Hon. Viktor V. Pohorelsky

Given that fact alone I would respectfully suggest that Plaintiff has no right at all to the letters. Her claim is based on an allegedly false affidavit, and (should her claim survive both the mootness and arbitration defenses) her case will involve legal fights over issues such as witness immunity and privilege that simply are not issues for those who merely received letters. Ms. Mayorga's letter was outside either of the class periods, and her attorneys could not establish typicality or commonality by contacting letter recipients as she does not, herself, fall within a letter class that would not be time-barred.

I recognize that denying Plaintiff access to the letters may result in another barrage of discovery motions from Mr. Keshavarz, even though he has no need for or right to those letters at this stage of the litigation. Furthermore, even if you reconsider as to the letters Defendants also have concerns about the producing in unredacted form the screen shots that the S&L Defendants have been ordered to produce as those, too, will contain identifying and personal information of persons who are not members of a certified class and are therefore neither before the Court nor represented by Plaintiff's counsel at this time. Defendants fear that: (1) Mr. Keshavarz will violate the privacy rights of those persons; or (2) he will use the letters and screen shots to solicit debtors directly either to add yet additional plaintiffs or to find new plaintiffs for other cases should this action be dismissed or referred to arbitration.

With regard to the former concern I would point to the following examples in this case of willful disregard by Mr. Keshavarz of the Court's redaction rules:

Docket Entry	Page	Disclosure
1	24, 84	Plaintiff's address
1	34	Account Number
1	35-46, 48, 50, 52, 54, 56, 58	Plaintiff's address and account number
61-3	2, 4, 13, 19, 45,	Account Number
61-3	8, 9, 49	Plaintiff's address
61-3	20-31, 33, 35, 37, 39, 41, 43	Plaintiff's address and account number
61-3	63, 66, 68	Marvin Weinberg's address
61-3	64	Marvin Weinberg's Account Number
61-3	70, 71, 72, 76	Oleg Tyulenev's address
61-3	72	Oleg Tyulenev's Account Number
61-3	85, 86, 93, 98	Kareem Green's address
61-3	88, 89	Kareem Green's Account Number

This list is incomplete, as other pages containing personal information were illegible, but the personal information was not redacted. However, the above chart reflects forty-two separate redaction violations to date in this case. Although redaction violations can happen to anyone they are usually inadvertent. It is clear in this case, however, that Mr. Keshavarz made absolutely no effort to redact. His conduct evidences conscious indifference for both the redaction rules and the privacy rights of his own clients (not to mention his certification that he redacted at the time of ECF filing). Respectfully, he simply should not be entrusted with the addresses, account numbers, and other private information of unnamed putative class members.

Defendants also have grave concern that allowing Mr. Keshavarz access to the addresses of putative class members will result in solicitation of those persons as plaintiffs in this or other cases. Plaintiff's counsel filed this suit putting forth Ms. Mayorga as a suitable class representative. Now, as evidenced by their motion to amend, they have found at least three additional plaintiffs, and either counsel or those potential plaintiffs must not think that Ms. Mayorga is adequate to represent a class as those others also seek to become plaintiffs and putative class representatives.³ If the Court finds those persons to be atypical (e.g., for the reasons set forth above in Footnote 2) we have no doubt that Mr. Keshavarz will seek to add yet more plaintiffs.

The decision of whether to compel production of the names and addresses of putative class members lies within the discretion of the Court. Charles v. Nationwide Mut. Ins. Co., 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 143487, 9-10 (EDNY May 27, 2010). However:

Courts have ordinarily refused to allow discovery of class members' identities at the pre-certification stage out of concern that plaintiffs' attorneys may be seeking such information to identify potential new clients, rather than to establish the appropriateness of certification. See, e.g., Hatch v. Reliance Ins. Co., 758 F.2d 409, 416 (9th Cir. 1985) (affirming denial of motion to produce names of similarly situated investors); In re Mortgagors of Temple-Inland Mortg. Corp., 2001 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 1918, No. Civ. A. 99-CV-4633, 2001 WL 177181, at *2 (E.D. Pa. Jan. 24, 2001); Buycks-Roberson v. Citibank Federal Sav. Bank, 162 F.R.D. 338, 342 (N.D. Ill. 1995) (in redlining action against bank, plaintiffs were not entitled to loan files without redacted addresses where loan applicant's names were also redacted); Flanigan v. Am. Fin. Sys. of

Dziennik v. Sealift, Inc., 2006 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 33011, 3-4 (EDNY May 23, 2006). See, also, Calabrese v. CSC Holdings, Inc., No. 02 CV 5171, 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 16059, 2007 WL 749690, at *6 n.7 (EDNY Mar. 7, 2007) (Opinion by Judge Irizarry holding that courts "disfavor" pre-certification requests for the identities of putative class members).

This is a very real concern in FDCPA cases. In Wade v. Regional Credit Ass'n, 87 F.3d 1098 (9th Cir. 1996),⁴ the plaintiff's attorney obtained through discovery a list of debtors who had been the subject of collection efforts. He then threatened to use the list to solicit new clients unless the defendant paid him $30,000 not to engage in such conduct. The Court of Appeals affirmed an order of the district court enjoining the plaintiff's counsel from using the list of alleged debtors to solicit new clients.

This FDCPA case is based upon the filing of FRIC's state court motion for summary judgment. No other act occurred within the FDCPA's one-year limitations period, and we believe that should the case go forward with Ms. Mayorga as the plaintiff the letters are simply not relevant as she was not sent a letter within either the one-year or three-year periods. We similarly believe that the screen shots add nothing to the FDCPA class, but we acknowledge that you have ordered their production. Ms. Moreno has asked me to state that her client has no desire to violate an order of the Court; however, all Defendants ask that you modify your ruling to protect both them and the consumers whose personal information is at issue.

Since I am disclosing numbers in this letter I want to disclose as well that based upon the additional information that Ms. Moreno has provided me this week Defendants believe that the one-year class of persons who: (a) had suits filed after the expiration of the limitations period of the issuer's home state; and (b) either were sued during the one-year class period or had a request for relief made on or after February 7, 2011, consists of fewer than 35 persons,⁵ exclusive of the Eric Berman files. Mr. Berman is deceased, and we cannot get all of the information for a proper analysis. However, FRIC believes that at most it could be eleven persons for the one-year period. Thus, excluding the recipients of the letters (since Ms. Mayorga is not typical of those persons) the information reported to FRIC by the various law firms that have represented it in New York indicates that the total number of putative class members for the litigation class may not be sufficient to satisfy the numerosity requirement of Rule 23. Thus, Defendants are being put to substantial burden and risk in a case that appears likely not to be certifiable even if you deny both the motion to dismiss and the motion to compel arbitration.

⁴ There are two Wade decisions reported at that cite. This is a reference to the unpublished decision dealing with the misconduct of Wade's attorney.

Hon. Viktor V. Pohorelsky

In light of these concerns Defendants ask the Court to consider alternatives to protect the privacy of the putative class members (who are not presently parties to this litigation nor represented by Plaintiff's counsel) and to protect the defendants from having Mr. Keshavarz use those letters and screen shots to solicit new or additional plaintiffs. We request that you permit Defendants to satisfy your discovery order in the following manner:

1. FRIC could produce (at once, and without the need for any expenditure of time or fees to redact) exemplars of the five form letters together with a spreadsheet containing the names of the persons to whom they were sent, the number of the form that was sent to each, and the date the letter was sent. I have that spreadsheet and the exemplars in my possession, and they could be produced quickly.⁶
2. The S&L Defendants could generate the screen shots requested, but would ask that they be permitted to redact the addresses, phone numbers, Social Security Numbers, and dates of birth of the debtors. As Ms. Moreno disclosed at the hearing this must be done screen by screen, and only one S&L employee has the requisite permissions due to their security policies. Nevertheless, she reports that her client can manage it. She estimates that each screen takes six minutes to retrieve, review, and redact, and there are possibly as many as eight screen shots that will have to be printed. The employee who has the ability to print the screen shots has other critical job duties, and Ms. Moreno reports that she expects it will take two weeks from the date of a ruling to locate, print, and redact all of the screen shots.

⁵ Defendants are still identifying exclusions. There are some discrepancies between FRIC's records and those of S&L. FRIC thought that suits had been filed in a few instances where they were not. Also, S&L is still researching whether all suits that were potentially within the FDCPA class actually had litigation activity since the start of the class period. We expect the number to drop, and it could possibly be fewer than twenty.

Should you not change your prior ruling we ask in the alternative that you order Plaintiff's counsel not to contact any of the unnamed putative class members. Respectfully, though, Defendants fear that this is far less appropriate an option as it creates a substantial danger that we will have an additional battle in the future should Mr. Keshavarz attempt to represent one of the letter recipients.

Finally, FRIC is concerned about the possibility that privileged attorney-client communication will be produced. Mr. Keshavarz indicated a belief that he is entitled to the communications between FRIC and the S&L defendants. I hope that was not your intended ruling, and I did not see anything in the minute orders that indicated to me that you had made such a ruling. If you have I would respectfully request clarification. FRIC has not consented to any waiver by S&L of any such privilege.

The Defendants sincerely appreciate your consideration of these issues.

Yours truly,
